

A BOARD OF TRADE IN LAWRENCEVILLE

Business Men of the Town Held Enthusiastic Meeting and Form Organization.

PLACE HAS BRIGHT FUTURE

Fine Location and Many Special Advantages—Good Men in the Movement.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LAWRENCEVILLE, VA., January 7.— A meeting of the business men of Lawrenceville was held this morning in the county courthouse, which was from a business standpoint, one of the most enthusiastic meetings ever held in the town. The result in a nutshell was the organization of the Lawrenceville Board of Trade, which has for its object the advancement of the industrial interests of Lawrenceville and Brunswick county.

The meeting had been called by Mr.
Marvin Smith, a member of the Brunswick county bar, and in response to the call nearly every business man in the town was present.

Town of Bright Prospects.
Mr. Frank S. Woodson, writer for the Industrial Department of The Times-Dispatch, was introduced and addressed the meeting briefly. Mr.
Woodson spoke of the advantages of united action and pulling together. He thought there was no reason why Lawrenceville should not be one of the manufacturing centres of Virginia, situated as it is where the raw material of all kinds is available. It is in the very heart of the finest lumber region in Virginia, close to as many as eight cotton producing counties of Virginia and North Carolina, and equally as convenient to as many tobacco and peanut counties.

Mr. Woodson expressed the belief that all Lawrenceville needed to become a manufacturing centre and utilize these advantages of nearness to the raw material was organization, and after reference to the good work done in other towns by united effort, he urged the organization here of a board of trade.

Board Is Formed.

The meeting then proceeded to business, and the Lawrenceville Board of Trade was organized with forty members and the following officers: President, W. S. Peebles; First Vice-President, Marvin Smith; Second Vice-President, L. H. Roney; Third Vice-President, N. T. Purcell; Secretary, Charles S. Barrow; Assistant Secretary, W. B. Valentine; Treasurer, W. A.
Trotter, Jr.

An executive committee of five was appointed, and they were instructed to draft a code of laws for the government of the board and to report at a meeting to be held Thursday night

CHARGES AGAINST CHIEF.

Citizen of Danville Claims That Officer Was Abusive to Him.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
DANVILLE, VA., January 7.—

Charges of conduct unbecoming an officer of the law were preferred to-day against Chief of Police R. E. Morris by William T. Hall, a carpenter.

Hall claims that when he made complaint to Chief Morris about his son, William Hall, Jr., being clubbed by Special Officer G. B. Anderson, that he was cursed and abused him. During the holidays, Police Officer Anderson, while effecting the arrest of young Hall on the charge of being drunk, struck him with several times about the head with his club, inflicting an ugly wound. A warrant was sworn out against Anderson by Hall, who claimed that the assault was brutal and unprovoked. When the case was called for trial it was found that Anderson had left the city, and could not be located. The charges against Chief Morris will be investigated in the Mayor's Court to-morrow morning.

SWANSON AND FLOOD.

Expected to Speak at a Confederate Banquet.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ALEXANDRIA, VA., January 7.—

The principal speaker at the banquet which will be given by R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, at Lee Camp Hall, January 20th, in observance of General R. E. Lee's birthday, will be Governor Swanson, Congressman Flood, of Virginia, is also expected to respond to a toast. Representative John Sharp Williams, who was expected to be present and respond to a toast, has notified the veterans of his inability to attend.

Cutting Affray in Lynchburg.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LYNCHBURG, VA., January 7.—John

Fry was badly stabbed and slashed with a knife last night in South Lynchburg by Will Irvin, in a personal encounter and his condition is serious.
It is said Irvin acted in self-defense, but he disappeared after the fight.
Both men are cotton mill workers.

PUBLIC WORKS IN PETERSBURG

The Council Makes Provision for Completing Improvements on Number of Streets.

GENERAL LEE'S BIRTHDAY

A. P. Hill Camp, Confederate Veterans, Will Celebrate the Anniversary.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
PETERSBURG, VA., January 7.—

Consideration of public improvements of many kinds occupied the attention of the City Council during most of the lengthy session this evening. For completing improvements to a number of street roadways for which contracts had been made an appropriation of $7,685.15 was made, and a recommendation of the Finance Committee, as reported by Chairman N. T.
Patterson, an appropriation of $6,000 was made for the fire department for a wagon, additional hose, repairs to engines and additional men.

The Petersburg Home Building Corporation's $50,000 bond for its agreement to build on its property on Jefferson and Elm Street seven homes within two years, costing not less than $2,500 apiece, provided that the city makes an appropriation for sewers, sidewalks and water mains along the streets, was accepted. An appropriation of $5,500 for that purpose was made at a previous meeting of the Council and approved by the Board of Aldermen.

An Enterprising Company.

A petition from the Petersburg Homestead Corporation for an agreement to spend $8,000 in buildings on their property in the West End to be erected within two years if the city will appropriate $1,750 for sewers and water mains, the company to give a $2,500 bond, was referred to the Finance Committee. A large number of petitions for street improvements and new sewers was referred to the Public Improvement and Sewers, Sidewalks and Water Mains Committee in the matter of the proposed lease of Swann's Island, in the Appomattox River, owned by the city, to some shipbuilders of Williamsburg, Del. City Attorney George Mason rendered an opinion that the lease could not be legally made.

The December reports from the City Treasurer and City Auditor showed total receipts amounting to $34,484.12; expenditures, $13,674.02. The city's cash balance on January 1st amounted to $105,362.35.

For selling whiskey on Sunday and without a license, Aaron Lockett, colored, who has several times escaped conviction on a similar charge, was fined $20 in the Mayor's Court this morning, and sent to jail for ninety days.

Lieutenant Donahue and Police Officers Collier and Clayton raided Lockett's blind tiger on College Alley, evading his pickets and catching the negro

In the act of attempting to destroy evidence against him by drinking up the last quart bottle of whiskey in his stock, Officer Collier seized the bottle and presented it in court to-day. Two other witnesses also testified that they had bought whiskey from the accused negro.

Albert Hunter and Willie Hamilton, negroes, were assessed $5 apiece for stealing 25 cents from John Green, colored.

Sergeant Stevens made the leading score of eight points at the target practice of the city corps at the Petersburg Grays' Armory yesterday.
Patrolman Thomas Evans was second, with a score of seven points.

Jefferson Barber, a young negro employee of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, who was run over by a locomotive on the tracks near the Washington Street depot last Saturday night, died at the Petersburg Hospital yesterday. Barber's left leg was so badly crushed that amputation was necessary. He was twenty-six years old, and had resided in the city for several years. His family live in North Carolina.

Lee's Birthday Celebration.

A. P. Hill Camp of Confederate Veterans, is preparing to celebrate General R. E. Lee's birthday, and will parade with the Petersburg Grays and the camp of Sons of Veterans. After the parade a banquet will be given.
The death of General Lee, "The Great Cavalier," the colored body-servant of the camp, has been officially announced in a general order issued by Commander Homer Atkinson and Adjutant Carter. R.
Bishop. The order refers to the old negro, who had served with Confederate soldiers, in terms of the highest esteem.

Sales of loose tobacco were resumed to-day at the warehouses in this city, which have been closed for the holidays. Offerings to-day were very light.
The sales of the city of West End Baptist Sunday-school, which has forty-six members, and is the largest woman's Bible class in the city, held its annual social meeting last evening at the home of the teacher, Mr. Silvester. A large number of the members of the class and their guests were present, and greatly enjoyed a delightful evening. An especially interesting feature of the entertainment was the presentation of a handsome gold signet ring to Mr. Jordan by Mr.
W. M. Rucker on behalf of the class, as a testimonial of its love and esteem.

Election of Officers.

The following officers of Virginia Dare Council, No. 5, Daughters of Liberty, were installed last night by State Deputy Thomas B. Ivey: Councilor, Mrs. F. Eanes; Associate Councilor, Mrs. E. B. Perkins; Vice Councilor, Miss Nora Gill; Associate Vice-Counccilor, Mrs. M. Lumpkin; Recording Secretary, A. W. W. Bryan; Associate Recording Secretary, Andrew Burkhart; Financial Secretary, Mrs. Nora Rogers; Treasurer, Miss Mary F. Ivey; Guide, Miss Mary King; Inside Guard, Miss Ruth Rogers; Outside Guard, Miss Erma Chandler; Representative to the State Council, Miss Mary F. Ivey; Alternate, Mrs. F. Eanes.

A large assemblage of Red Men were present at the annual supper of Powhatan Tribe, No. 15, at Red Men's Hall to-night. The recently elected officers for the ensuing term were installed.

Three valuable rings were found on the front steps of the Academy of Music last Sunday morning by James Carson, a member of the Fire Department, who turned them over to Lieutenant Donahue, of the police corps.
The rings were returned to their owner, a member of the Nip and Tuck Company, which appeared here last Saturday night. Mr. Carson received a reward of $2.

NEGRO COMMITTS SUICIDE BY JUMPING INTO RIVER

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

DANVILLE, VA., January 7.—James Saunders, a negro barber, committed suicide early this morning by jumping into Dan River. He was seen on the banks of the river, and took the immediately upon arising. Several negroes saw him in the water, and shoved out a pole for him to grab, but he refused the proffered aid. The body has not been recovered.

Judge Waddill at Alexandria.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

ALEXANDRIA, VA., January 7.— The United States Circuit Court for the Eastern District of Virginia convened here this morning, with Judge Edmund Waddill presiding. A large number of people interested in cases to be tried at this term, together with many lawyers, were in attendance.
The grand jury returned indictments as follows: Catlett Turner, colored, jailed on a charge of mail from the post-office at Orange Courthouse, Va.; Jerry Willis, colored, indicted for selling a license. Court then adjourned until 11 o'clock to-morrow morning.

New Board Organized.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

SPOTSVYLVANIA, VA., January 7.— The recent meeting of board of supervisors of the county held their first meeting of the year at the courthouse.
Mr. Liburne M. Smith, of Burkeley county, was unanimously elected chairman of the board. Mr. Thomas Stokely Coleman, the recently-elected Commonwealth's attorney, was present.
Many claims were allowed and the advisability of a new road law for the county was fully discussed.

Theft of a Diamond Pin.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

NORFOLK, VA., January 7.—J. W.
Howard, a young white man, charged with the theft of a diamond pin from Captain Henry MacNamara, and valued at $15, was to-day given a preliminary hearing before Police Justice Shumons, and was held for the February term of the Corporation Court.
Howard claims to have bought the pin from an unknown negro for $2. He sold it to another man for $5.

Killed by the Coast Line.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

SUFFOLK, VA., January 7.—An unknown white man was killed last midnight at Deans, Va., on the Atlantic Coast Line Railway. According to his companion, Richard Nelson, who was arrested here to-day, the man was riding in a car and was thrown off while rounding a curve.

QUIET MARRIAGE IN CITY OF LEXINGTON

Miss Josefa B. Allan Becomes the Bride of Mr. William V. Collins, of Oklahoma.

THE BONNIE MAID OF HONOR

Miss Louisa T. Purcell, of Richmond—An Enjoyable Reception Follows.

LEXINGTON, VA., January 7.—A quiet marriage was celebrated this afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Reid White, on Nelson Street and Jackson Avenue, Lexington, the contracting parties being Miss Jo-sefa Backus Allan, daughter of Mrs.
Elizabeth Preston Allan, and Mr. William Vance Collins, of Hugo, Oklahoma. The couple pledged their troth with a ring.

The bride was dressed in embroidered balais over tulle and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Her ornaments were pearls. She was attended by Miss Louisa Tarbell Purcell, of Richmond, Va., as maid of honor, who was gowned in chiffon cloth over green taffeta, and carried white roses and ferns. The best man was Mr. Charles F. Shaffer, instructor in the Augusta Military Academy, of Augusta county, Va.

The bridesmaids were Miss Goucher, of Baltimore, Md.; Miss Campbell, of Owings Mills, Va.; Miss Turnbull, Miss Glasgow and Miss Stuart, of Lexington, Va. They wore white balais with green girdles and carried bouquets of ferns.

The flower girl was little Lucy Gordon White, and the ribbon boys were little Preston White, James White, Tom Preston and Edmund Preston.
The parlor was decorated with wild smiles and holly, and illumined with numerous colored lights. The officiating minister was the Rev. Alfred T.
Graham, D. D., the bride's pastor, who was assisted by Rev. L. D. Turnbull, D.
D. Mrs. Watts, wife of Major C. W.
Watts, of the Virginia Military Institute, played the wedding march. Just previous to the ceremony, "O Perfect Love," was rendered by the following quartet: Miss Sally Preston, Mrs. Reid White, Mr. F. H. Anchutz and Dr. Reid White.

The bride is the youngest daughter of the late Colonel William Allan, former professor of applied mathematics at Washington and Lee University, and later principal of the McDonough School of near Baltimore, Md. She is a beautiful and accomplished young lady, and is popular in the social circles of Lexington. She is a sister of Mrs. Bryan, wife of Senator William J. Bryan, of Florida, recently appointed to the United States Senate by the Governor of Florida. Mr. Collins is a member of the firm Varner, Collins Hardware Company, of Hugo, Oklahoma. He graduated from Washington and Lee University in 1904 with the degree of bachelor of arts.

After the marriage a reception was held at Dr. White's in honor of the bride and party and guests. Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. George Preston and Miss Margaret Preston, of Baltimore.
